Position Vacant: Principal

Nungalinga College is a combined churches vocational educational College in Darwin providing Christian education through literacy, media, music and theology courses. The College is seeking a new Principal to commence in December 2018.

The Principal will lead a Christ-centred educational vision that appreciates and respects Indigenous languages and cultures and seek to empower Indigenous Christians at every level of the College. The Principal will also teach in the Certificate III and / or IV courses in Christian Ministry and Theology.

This role requires a person who is culturally sensitive, flexible, ecumenically minded, and highly competent in order to meet the demands of what is a uniquely rewarding but challenging environment.

For further information and a Position Description please contact Dr Jude Long on 08 8920 7527 or email jlong@nungalinga.edu.au

Applications should include the applicant's resume as well as a covering letter addressing the selection criteria.

Applicants must either be an Australian citizen or have a current work visa.

Indigenous Australians are encouraged to apply.

Closing Date for Applications: 20th July 2018
